Benethea Hardin Portfolio

About Me:

My name is Benethea Hardin and my nickname is Neta. I currently work with adults with developmental disabilities teaching them various community integration and self help skills. I am attending UCSD's Coding Bootcamp. I'm enjoying learning new skills and furthering my knowledge in various fields. My personal interest include traveling, trying new foods, fishing, listening to music and attending concerts. I have lived in San Diego County for 7 and a half years and I enjoy being everywhere from the beach to the desert.
